BOARD OF TRUSTEES

PACIFIC AVENUE PROTESTS DENIED—TO CLEAR VERDUGO CHANNEL

The regular meeting of the board of trustees was held at the city hall, Thursday evening, October 26, 1916. Present J. S. Thompson, president of the board and Trustees Charles Grist, R. M. Jackson, F. L. Muhleman and G. B. Woodberry. Also present J. C. Sherer, city clerk; T. W. Watson, city manager; W. E. Evans, city attorney; H. B. Lynch, manager of public service department; E. M. Lynch, city engineer; G. H. Herald, city marshal; A. H. Lankford, fire marshal.

The minutes of the last regular meeting were read and approved.

A communication was read from the mayor of the city of Riverside thanking the representatives of the city of Glendale for the support of the efforts made by the Riverside delegation at Visalia to secure the next meeting of the League of California Municipalities for Riverside.

Applications for hunting permits were presented from Earl La Rowe, Sam Neighbors and J. J. Neighbors, stating that they had obtained permission of the property owners to hunt upon their grounds. Upon motion of Trustee Grist, permits were granted with the usual restrictions.

On motion of Trustee Muhleman, it was ordered that the proceedings in the hearing of protests against the assessment for the improvement of Pacific avenue be taken up at this time. The protest was read, the engineer reporting the total of frontage represented by petitioners amounting to 1960.

Mr. McQuivey addressed the board for the petitioners as did also Mrs. Chapman and Mr. Davis. The city engineer explained the matters in detail in regard to the work, particularly with reference to the plan upon which the assessment was made. The matter was discussed at considerable length and finally upon motion of Trustee Woodberry, the appeal was denied.

On motion of Trustee Grist, it was ordered that bids for ornamental street lights in connection with the Canada Boulevard improvement be opened, read and publicly declared. Bids were opened and read, and upon motion of Trustee Grist, referred to the manager of the public service department to make a report upon the same at once.

The manager of the public service department made a report recommending the acceptance of the bid of the United Casting company, and on motion of Trustee Grist, the recommendation was approved and the bid of the United Casting company ordered to be accepted and the contract to be signed by the proper officials.

The weekly report of the tax collector was presented showing collections since the last report, amounting to $845.05, making a total collected to date of $2610.25. On motion the report was ordered to be filed.

The city manager presented a report upon various matters as follows:

He had seen Mr. Bullock in Verdugo Canyon in reference to certain obstructions placed by him in the canon stream and was assured that the same would be removed. The manager suggested that an expenditure of Two Hundred Dollars could be profitably applied to clearing out the channel of the stream at this time—that Mr. Bullock is willing for the work to be done as far as his property is concerned, and he had no doubt that Judge Ross would also be willing where it was necessary to do the work upon his land. He further suggested that the $50 previously set aside to be expended in the planting of willows along the channel, might be included in the total sum which he had recommended as necessary, and upon motion of Trustee Woodberry, the street superintendent was authorized to spend the sum of $150 in addition to the $50 above alluded to for clearing out the channel of the stream.

The manager reported that Mr. Bonh of the Glendale-Montrose Railroad company had assured him that his company is ready to proceed at once with the completion of the work on Third street.

In regard to the obtaining of connections and installations of gas service on Stanley avenue, he reported that one of the property owners has been objecting to granting an easement, but that the matter had been taken up with him and explained so that it is probable he will soon give his consent.

The street department has been doing good work on portions of Colorado and Kenwood streets and Maryland and Glendale avenues, but will probably have to discontinue such

GLEN EYRIE CHAPTER

EASTERN STAR CELEBRATES HALLOWEEN SEASON WITH PARTY

The regular meeting of Glen Eyrie Chapter, Eastern Star, was held on Thursday evening, October 26 at 8 o'clock at Masonic Temple. Mrs. Fern Roberts, Worthy Matron, gave an interesting and comprehensive report of the meeting of the Grand Chapter which was held in Santa Barbara October 17 to 21. Mrs. Daniel Campbell and Warren Roberts, Worthy Patron, also gave reports of their pleasant week at Grand Chapter.

At the close of the Chapter a Hallowe'en party was enjoyed by the members and their escorts. The very atmosphere breathed the spirit of Hallowe'en and autumn. Gorgeously chrysanthemums and dahlias had been used in abundance while festoons of fruits and flowers in autumn colors were artistically arranged and witches and black cats on an orange background adorned the walls. The platform had been arranged to represent a farm scene with a lighted farm house, a field of pumpkins guarded by a scarecrow and other features that brought back the days of yore to many. In one corner of the room a witch had erected her tent and foretold the future of the guests. Later this spirit of Hallowe'en vanished and in her stead appeared the Associate Matron, Mrs. A. M. Beaman.

The guests entered one couple at a time and were welcomed by Mrs. T. D. Ogg, chairman of the entertainment committee, who turned them over to the tender mercies of four ghosts who greeted them with cold and clammy palms that caused many shrieks. Tables arranged about the room each contained some new form of Hallowe'en amusement and fun and frolic reigned throughout the evening. Music by a three-piece orchestra added to the pleasure of the guests. Refreshments characteristic of Hallowe'en were served and all departed at a late hour filled with the happy spirit of Hallowe'en.

Those who planned this delightful party were Mrs. T. D. Ogg, chairman, assisted by Mrs. Salo Desky, Mrs. A. M. Beaman, Miss Mae Cornwell, Mrs. W. S. Noyse, Mrs. H. E. Betz and Mrs. Blanche Petersen.

The next meeting of Glen Eyrie Chapter will be held November 9 at which time election of officers will take place.

HALLOWEEN PARTY

Mrs. Albert B. Pearce, 1559 MILFORD street, entertained Thursday with a most enjoyable Hallowe'en party. Covers were laid for ten guests. The Hallowe'en colors, yellow and black, were conspicuous throughout the whole scheme of the entertainment. The rooms were artistically adorned with yellow chrysanthemums. The dining table had a striking centerpiece consisting of a cleverly cut pumpkin bowl filled with yellow fruit. Around this centerpiece were arranged all the usual Hallowe'en symbols—black cats, witches with their brooms, death-heads, hobgoblins of all kinds. The place cards exhibited Hallowe'en symbols. The favors were little yellow and black death's heads mounted on pins. The nut baskets were of yellow cardboard adorned with black cats and other symbolic figures. The yellow and black color scheme was carried out in all the dinner courses. After luncheon the guests played for the prize for high score going to Mrs. Walter Stamps.

The guests were Mrs. Charles H. Temple, Mrs. A. W. Tower, Mrs. Licius Phillips, Mrs. Walter Stamps, Mrs. Warren Roberts, Mrs. John Hunchberger, Mrs. Henry Goodwin and Mrs. W. E. Evans.

PLANS SURPRISE

In connection with the attractive free stereopticon lecture to be given next Thursday evening by Professor J. W. Gregg on Public Parks and Playgrounds a surprise is being planned for all those attending the entertainment. The president of the Garden society on being interviewed, smilingly shook her head and refused to divulge the secret. A little bird is going round Glendale whispering that everybody present on Thursday night will become the recipient of a gift. Mrs. Nanno Woods does not deny the report, but says she is not at liberty at present to announce any details. Thursday evening, November 2, in the High school auditorium at 8 o'clock sharp. Everybody come.

WEATHER FORECAST—Fair tonight and Saturday; foggy along the coast; westerly winds.

AMERICAN TROOPS READY FOR ATTACK

U. S. WAR DEPARTMENT LEARNS OF PLAN TO ASSAULT AMERICAN LINES IN MEXICO

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
EL PASO, Oct. 27.—The war department received definite information this morning that a plea has been arranged by which the American troops in Mexico will be attacked by Villa and other bandits. Should the Mexicans find that the American lines are too strong for them, they will possibly attack some undefended city along the Mexican border. All the American forces have been warned of the proposed attack and are in readiness to repel any attempt to assail their positions.

BERLIN SAYS VON FALKENHAYN STILL HOLDS

GERMANS BELITTLE ROUMANIAN SUCCESSES ON THE TRANSYLVANIAN FRONTIER

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
BERLIN, Oct. 27.—The reported victory of the Roumanians on the Transylvanian frontier is greatly exaggerated. The Germans under Von Falkenhayn are still holding their ground on the frontier and have by no means given up their idea of advancing on Bucharest from the west. On the Dobrudja front, General Von Mackensen is reforming his lines before attempting to cross the Danube. The crossing will be made farther west than the great Czernavoda bridge, which has been destroyed.

FRENCH ARE CLOSING IN ON FORT VAUX

GENERAL NIVELLE'S MEN TIGHTEN THEIR GRASP ON IMPORTANT FORTRESS IN GERMAN HANDS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
PARIS, Oct. 27.—General Nivelle's troops in some places are not more than 500 yards from Fort Vaux. They are waiting while the rest of the army gets in line. The French are gradually wrapping their force around the fort, which was captured by the Germans a few months ago and has been strongly fortified by them. In clearing up the trenches and territory in front of their advance, the French have captured a few hundred Germans. The German counter-attacks, which were sent forward in four separate lines, were repulsed with great slaughter.

GERMAN CHANCELLOR TO REPLY TO BRITISH

VON BETHMANN-HOLLWEG HAS INTIMATED THAT HE WILL ANSWER VISCOUNT GREY

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
BERLIN, Oct. 27.—Von Bethmann-Hollweg, the German Imperial chancellor, intimated today that he would reply to the statements of Viscount Grey, the British minister of foreign affairs, concerning the origin of the war and the violation of Germany's pledges to the United States government regarding the submarine issue. The German chancellor, acting on instructions from a higher source, is anxious to prove to the world that Germany was not responsible for the war.

GERMAN AND BRITISH DESTROYERS CLASH

NAVAL ENCOUNTER OFF DOVER ENDS WITH SINKING OF TWO GERMAN BOATS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
LONDON, Oct. 27.—British destroyers patrolling the ocean not far from Dover fell in with strong flotilla of German destroyers. The Germans immediately turned and fled, keeping up a running fight, in the course of which two of their number were sent to the bottom. The fight extended over a considerable range of the straits and one of the British destroyers has not yet returned. It may have been sunk.

CARRANZA ACCEPTS OFFER OF PRESIDENCY

DE FACTO RULER IS EXCEEDINGLY ANXIOUS TO BE PRESIDENT OF MEXICO DE JURE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
MEXICO CITY, Oct. 27.—Despite reports to the contrary, Carranza has still many friends who are willing to aid him in being nominated and elected president of Mexico. Carranza himself is anxious to get the appointment and will probably not hesitate to adopt the late President Diaz' plea of allowing no one to vote who is not willing to vote for him. With the growing strength of Villa, however, he is at a loss how to control Chihuahua province, and with the advance of Felix Diaz in Mexico province he has another dangerous enemy.

NO AMERICANS IN MEXICAN BORDER PLOT

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 27.—Secretary Lansing, speaking of Secretary of War Baker's report concerning the expected raid on American military lines and possibly on American border towns, said that there was no suspicion that Americans were engaged in the plot.

BACK FROM IRELAND

J. B. MCBRATNEY, OF IRISH LINEN STORE, RETURNS FROM BUSINESS TRIP

After a sojourn in Ireland and England, whither he went on a purchase trip, J. B. McBratney, proprietor of the Irish Linen store, has returned to Glendale. In a series of articles written from the other side of the Atlantic Mr. McBratney has already told a great deal that was interesting concerning this trip. He says in addition:

"One of the differences that struck me between this country and the north of Ireland, was the absence of a great many of the conveniences of life, even in the homes of the well-to-do business men that working people would have in this country as a matter of course. The women of the United States have developed the refinements of life to a much greater degree than have their sisters in Ireland. The American homes are full of little refinements and articles of comfort that are entirely absent even in homes that would be considered better over there. The homes of proprietors of large stores in both England and Ireland and the homes of rich people are often lacking in comforts that are considered indispensable in the homes of working people here."

"However, I noticed that the people both in Ireland and England were not half so much slaves to their business as they are here. They try to have leisure moments and take life easier. They don't work so hard and really in spite of the war and other troubles have a great deal of pleasure out of life."

"I noticed in the north of Ireland that business men took a great deal of interest in American politics. They were constantly asking questions about the coming presidential election. In the middle counties and in the south the people were more concerned with home rule and less with the United States. There is a considerable amount of dissatisfaction in Ireland still. The stern measures, however, which the British government adopted, have made the agitators afraid to make any move."

"Conscription has not yet been extended to Ireland. The Ulster province would be ready to receive it but would insist on the rest of the country being included. The south of Ireland is especially opposed to the idea."

"I saw nothing of the Zeppelin raids personally while I was in London. There were attempted raids, to be sure, but they never got far enough into the city to be visible from where I was staying. One thing I am certain of—the German accounts of great damage done in London by the Zeppelins is all exaggeration. I went about the whole city, on bus and by underground and was in every part of the great city, but I saw no traces of any damage. It is true that there have been houses damaged but those have been chiefly on the outskirts. The German accounts of the raids are evidently for home consumption."

"The people of London, also, look on a Zeppelin raid as a show. I was impressed by the anxiety of many of the people there to see the German airships and by the regrets that they never had a chance to see them. I also learned that the number of German submarines that have been captured by the British has been so great that that alone accounted for the slowing down of the submarine campaign and not any desire to please the United States. It is said that if a German submarine sinks a British boat anywhere close to the British shores that submarine is doomed. It has no chance of getting away. The ocean is alive with high-powered submarine chasers and the undersea boat is run down in short order into the nets that guard the channels."

"Money is plentiful in Britain. Wages are higher than they have ever been. There is work for everybody. Farmers are prosperous and the farm laborer is earning $2 a day."

"The British government is adopting every means in its power to get hold of men eligible for conscription. Bodies of police attend moving picture shows and other public gatherings and tackle every eligible looking man present. If any of them cannot show proof of having enlisted or give reasons satisfactory as to why he has not enlisted he is marched off to court and entered on the conscription list and sometimes fined in addition if the evasion has been flagrant."

"From my observation both the people of Ireland and the people of England are strongly friendly toward America and Americans. They feel that this country is friendly toward them and are grateful. Nothing could exceed the hospitality of the British and Irish toward visiting Americans; nothing is too good for them."

HUGHES AND LABOR

THE GREATEST FRIEND OF LABOR LAWS SAYS THE LABOR NEWS

Editor Evening News, Dear Sir:—Some of my Democratic friends think to be fair to all I should give Mr. Hughes' labor record as I am in a recent issue of The News called attention to Mr. Wilson's opinion of union labor in 1909.

In giving Mr. Hughes' labor record I will quote from union labor authority, The Legislative Labor News, the official organ of the New York State Federation of Labor (Mr. Gompers is their chief) printed when Judge Hughes was appointed to the supreme bench, as follows:

"Now that Governor Hughes has retired from politics and ascended to a place on the highest judicial tribunal in the world, the fact can be acknowledged without hurting anybody's political corns that he was the greatest friend of labor laws that ever occupied the governor's chair at Albany."

During his two terms he has signed fifty-six labor laws, including among them the best labor laws ever enacted in this or any other state.

He has also urged the enactment of labor laws in his messages to the legislature.

Even going so far as to place the demand for a labor law in one of his messages to an extra session of the legislature.

Only 162 labor laws have been enacted in this state since its erection in 1777—133 years. One-third of these exceeding in quality all of the others have been enacted and signed during Governor Hughes' term of three years and nine months."

Now the above is no Republican fairy story or hot air, but the cold facts from the official organ of union labor in the state of New York. Mr. Union Labor Man or Woman, now you have the opinion of Mr. Wilson and Mr. Hughes on union labor one by words, the other by deeds, make your choice.

W. H. NICOLE.

POSTOFFICE APPLICANTS

Since the announcement was made that Congressman Charles H. Randall had secured an independent postoffice for Glendale, there has been all kinds of talk about who shall be appointed postmaster.

The editor of The Evening News has been an active factor in bringing about this change and feels keenly the importance of the postmaster going to a person who is well fitted for the position. Citizens of Glendale should be slow to sign petitions promiscuously, but should aid Congressman Randall in presenting for appointment a man who is clerically and mentally well fitted for the place.

DEATH OF REV. THEODORE CROWL

The Rev. Theodore Crowl of 211 West Ellwood Drive, Eagle Rock, passed away at his home Thursday after a brief illness. Mr. Crowl was a well known figure in Ohio and Illinois during a considerable period. He was seventy-two years of age, having been born in Pennsylvania in 1844. During the civil war Mr. Crowl served as first lieutenant of the 178th Ohio regiment. He afterwards went to Washington-Jefferson College, Pa. and studied for the ministry. He was pastor of the First Congregational church at Sterling, Ill., for sixteen years. He was also pastor of the Zanesville, O., Presbyterian church.

He served a brief pastorate at Salida, Colo. Afterward he returned to Zanesville, O., and served another pastorate in the Presbyterian church there for three years. He leaves a widow, one daughter, Miss Corinna Crowl; one brother in Tacoma, Wash. and three sisters. The services will be held at the home of the deceased Saturday at 4 p. m. Interment will be later in the east. The funeral arrangements are in charge of the Jewel City Undertaking company.

and Irish toward visiting Americans; nothing is too good for them.

"I made many purchases in Belfast and found that prices were stiff. Nevertheless I was able, through my knowledge of the market, to get many bargains, and will be able to sell these goods and in fact all the goods I purchased considerably below New York prices. I had all the goods I purchased assembled and shipped just before I left and was agreeably surprised to get notice this morning that though they had to come through the Panama canal that they had arrived in Los Angeles. The Glendale people will be able to profit greatly by my personal visit to Ireland."

GLENDALE, CALIFORNIA, FRIDAY, OCTOBER 27, 1916

FARMING—A UNIVERSITY SUBJECT

In an interesting letter published in The Glendale Evening News Wednesday, Will Richardson of 805 South Central avenue, tells of the work that is being done at the Davis farm, which is an educational adjunct of the University of California. Mr. Richardson is intensely interested in agriculture and in view of the fact that he will probably do some extensive farming himself he went to the university farm to take a course in agriculture. He tells us that there are men of all kinds at the farm school. Farmers of experience and wide acres are there and beginners who hope to be able to own a farm soon are there learning how to make most profit out of their prospective acres.

There is no doubt that the American farmers are the most alert and capable in the world. They have not been producing more per acre than any other farmers in the world but they produce from two to six times more per man, per unit of labor and capital. They use more and better machinery than any other farmers. They have the assistance of more powerful practical and scientific agencies.

No other three nations in the world combined have as powerful forces aiding the farmers as this nation has. The land-grant colleges and experiment stations are without parallel. They are sixty-seven in number; have a total valuation of endowment, plant and equipment of $128,000,000; an income of more than $26,000,000, with 4500 teachers, a resident body of students of more than 60,000, and a vast number receiving extension instruction.

The great ally of the farm schools is the agricultural department of the United States, which is unquestionably the greatest practical, scientific, agricultural organization in the world, with a total annual budget of $36,129,000, having increased in three years by fifty per cent. It has a staff of more than 16,000 people, many of them highly trained experts, and all of them in consequence, with three exceptions, in the classified service.

In this way the farmers have the benefit of a number of long needed highly beneficial legislative enactments. The nation is committed to an expenditure of millions for the direct education of farmers, and of $160,000,000 from federal and state cooperative funds for good roads over a period of five years, with many additional millions arising from local sources.

Great numbers of farmers and of farmers' organizations are alert, intelligent and acting vigorously for the betterment of the life of the nation. No other people have such enormous expenditures for general education. Other countries are depending on the United States more and more for foodstuffs, and in the years to come Europe in particular is likely to ask our service.

There is promise in the increasing number of farmers and prospective farmers who are attending university institutions like the Davis farm that foreign competition will be nowhere in the race for success with the American farmer of the future. His modern influence is having a vast effect on the whole country. Almost every American farmer owns an automobile that he uses with effect sometimes for driving a threshing machine, sometimes as a roadster. He has been the chief advocate of good roads and his advocacy has been the chief factor in the construction of new highways everywhere. This progressive attitude he owes to the farm schools to a great extent.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

Miss Margaret McPherson entertained a number of her young friends at her home, 1516 Pioneer Drive, Thursday evening, October 26, in honor of her birthday. Decorations of huge yellow chrysanthemums were beautiful and appropriate to the season, this color scheme being further carried out in other appointments. Games were enjoyed and refreshments were served at small tables, prettily decorated, to the following: Misses Doris Latter, Nora Smith, Leah Siple, Margaret Lushy, Dorothy Stanton, Myrtle Tummel, Mary Hunt, Ruth Sanford, Margaret and Vera McPherson; Messrs. Archibald, Milton Brown, Joseph Finestein, John Sharpe, Hugh Freeman, Earl Brown, Robert Abarta, Fred Sanford, Martin Abaria, Carroll Hare, Harold Latter.

WILSON HIGH SCHOOL RALLY

The great Wilson demonstration at the High school was opened this morning by an address in the auditorium by Dan W. Simms, of Los Angeles, a prominent attorney and educator. By 11:15 the auditorium was filled with an interested and enthusiastic audience. Kenneth Beldin was chairman of the meeting and stated the purpose of the gathering in a few well-chosen words. Mattison B. Jones introduced the speaker of the day. He said that Mr. Simms was an attorney of eminence and had been and continued to be general counsel of Purdue University of Indiana, a good citizen and thoroughly competent to present the great course for which he was to speak.

Colonel Dan W. Simms said that there were two great relationships in life: that of man to the deity and that of man to his fellows.

Tracing the progress of humanity from the time when the early Aryan race on the tableland of Asia reached to a pure knowledge of the divine power of the universe to modern times he said that every religion was based on the duty man owed to God and that from that came the duty he owed to his fellow men. All government also is based on these ideas. The first unit of civil government is the home. It is in the home that manhood and womanhood are made. Thence flow the different parties in the state. They all agree on the fundamental principles of government, but differ in their conception of policies.

Tracing the history of the Democratic party from the time of Thomas Jefferson the speaker showed how the business interests of the nation gathered around the party in power and strove to dominate it. They did so with the Democratic party and a great upheaval came at the time of the civil war. They did so with the Republican party and a great upheaval came in 1912 when Wilson was elected. Wilson he said had chased out the old big business lobby. He had given the country constructive legislation. His trade commission, the passing of the Eight Hour law and the Child Labor law would ever remain monuments to his wonderful constructive legislative ability. He had kept the country neutral during the difficulties of the war in Europe. He was an honored Christian gentleman who was not afraid to do right.

The speaker was accompanied on the platform by Miss Simms, Mattison B. Jones, Carlton West and William Balthis. Kenneth Beldin, the chairman reminded the students of the great Democratic parade this afternoon.

LA CANADA

Both instructive and interesting is the program promised by the chairman of the program committee, Mrs. Max Green, for the next meeting of the Parent-Teacher's association Friday, November 3, at the school house. Dr. Saphro, physician and surgeon and a member of the medical staff of the Children's hospital in Hollywood, will talk on the subject of milk and its food value, giving a general outline of the work of inspection, sanitation, and the like, as practised locally. Also, she will tell of the free milk stations established in Los Angeles some time ago, and the great good accomplished in those districts where they are maintained, and of kindred subjects helpful to mothers in the upbringing of their children. Dr. Saphro is a fluent, forceful speaker and it is expected a large audience will be in attendance to listen to the excellent things she will have to say. These meetings are free and open to every-

Roy Wright and Chester Killgore of the Glendale Electric Cleaning Works, 568 West Broadway, returned Thursday morning from a successful duck hunt at Elizabeth lake. Mrs. F. L. Noble of Norwalk has been at the home of Mrs. M. A. Timmons, 805 West Ninth street, for several days suffering with stomach trouble. She is slowly recovering. Her son, Forrest L. SENIORS WIN FROM JUNIORS IN BASKETBALL GAME—ED SEAY REMOVED

The Junior basketball team yesterday proved easier to beat than had been expected. With the exception of the first five minutes, the Seniors were the winning team the entire game.

The careful coaching of Mr. Ferguson made an early showing in the team-work of the Senior squad. This team should know some basketball by the end of the season. The Juniors put up a game fight, and it was not lack of courage that lost them the game. In the last half, Coach Wight put Ed Seay off the field.

The Senior lineup: Forwards, Brown, Reese; guards, Keyes, McGillis; center, Sherriger. Substitutes, Seay and Westwood.

The Junior lineup: Forwards, Brown, Reese; guards, Powers, Padelford; center, Verne Wyman. Substitutes, Beach and Merritt Brown.

The remaining basketball schedule is as follows: 4 p. m., Monday, Oct. 30, Freshmen vs. Seniors. 4 p. m., Wednesday, Nov. 1, Sophomores vs. Seniors. 3:30 p. m., Friday, Nov. 3, Freshmen vs. Seniors. 4:15 p. m., Friday, Nov. 3, Sophomores vs. Juniors.

The G. O. P., otherwise known as Republicans, Hughesites, etc., met in room 129 yesterday in secret session. After the meeting the president announced that big plans were on foot to outdo the Wilson club. No details however could be obtained, so the public is left to guess what is forthcoming.

Although no Wilson club meeting was held yesterday, every corner of the school was occupied by some committee or other working on the parade. Most important of these meetings was the conference between the chairman of the parade committee, Grand Marshal Clem Moore, and the marshal's aides: Carleton West, woman's suffrage division; Gilbert Mitchell, child labor division; William Gowen, eight-hour law division.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

Miss Joy Williford, who attained the age of 7 Thursday, October 26, celebrated that event at her home, 231 Orange street, by entertaining twenty little girls at a unique afternoon party. They played all the old-fashioned games in which children have always delighted, and some new ones. Then they divided into two groups and marched into the dining room, where each child was presented with a witch cap. They also donned yellow and black sashes and, marching to music, made a pretty picture in the nicely and seasonably decorated rooms. They were then presented with yellow and black pinwheels. The birthday cake with its seven symbolic yellow candles and its black witch cap was lit, and after refreshments the children went out to the lawn and played until it was time to go home.

The invited guests were Marjorie Temple, Virginia Witt, Stella Roberts, Louise Berry, Virginia Buriff, Marguerite Chappell, Alma Louise Abell, Josephine Franklin, Helen Daniels, Dorothy Van Dyke, Helen White, Mary Beers, Ruth Coates, Edith Beers, Helen Porter, Dorothy Beers, Mary Sawyer and Vivian Malone.

PROGRESSIVE WHIST PARTY

The ladies of the Church of the Holy Family held their usual progressive whist party for the benefit of the building fund of the church, Friday afternoon, at the home of Miss George Duffet, 1008 Chestnut street. Seventy-five ladies were present. The house was charmingly decked with Hallowe'en symbols and Hallowe'en colors. The prize winners were Mrs. Hannon of Los Angeles, first prize; Mrs. John Roth, second prize; Mrs. Powers, third prize; and Mrs. Pitman, consolation prize. A very handsome sum was realized for the church building fund.

David J. Graham of 235 East Third street returned Wednesday from a trip through the Coachella country where he was visiting his late property. From Coachella he went to the Salton sea country, where he found quite a deal of activity. Thence he went to Mexicali on the border where affairs are very much as they have always been.
